MESSAGE FROM THE CAMPUS SUPERIOR

Dear Readers,

As we journey through, a month filled with gratitude and reflection, let us take a moment to acknowledge the countless blessings in our lives. This season reminds us to be thankful for the opportunities we have to grow, learn, and serve one another.

November also marks a time of preparation and anticipation as we are awaiting the joy of Christmas. Let us use this time to nurture the values of kindness, generosity, and love in our campus community.

May we remain united in our mission to uphold the principles of faith, excellence, and service, encouraging one another to live with purpose and gratitude each day.

Wishing you all a fruitful month ahead filled with peace and joy.

Warm regards,

Rev. Sr. J. Victoria Amali

The Campus Superior

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Warm greetings to you.

Hope this newsletter finds you in good health.

This month brings happiness, joy to the entire world. Three concepts are very important loving, caring and sharing. Every one of us come forward to love all the people, caring the people and by sharing with unknown people by what we can feel the presence of God and we will receive blessings in our life.

“Love grows deeper when we care for others, and happiness multiplies when we share it freely. In loving, caring, and sharing, we discover the true meaning of life.”

Through this newsletter we are focusing on our school activities for your notice. Watch & enjoy. If you want to give any suggestions you are most welcome.

Mr. C. Manicka Raj

The Principal
